About ISM

The International Solidarity Movement (ISM) is a Palestinian-led movement committed to resisting the Israeli occupation in Palestine by using nonviolent, direct-action methods and principles. Founded by a small group of primarily Palestinian and Israeli activists in August 2001, ISM aims to support and strengthen the Palestinian popular resistance by providing the Palestinian people with two resources, international solidarity and an international voice.

For detailed information on ISM please visit www.palsolidarity.org

Interning / volunteering with ISM

You will be based in the West Bank, experienced and interested activists may be placed in Gaza. Apart from gaining reporting and photography experience, you will also be networking with existing media outlets and develop skills during media meetings on reporting the occupation of Palestine. ISM is seeking a minimum 3 month commitment, and will provide accommodation during your stay. ISM is a non-hierarchical solidarity movement. Consequently, you will not be treated as a classical intern but rather as a fellow voluntary member of the activist group.

Fields of work

- Learn to humanize the voice of the struggle by reporting on events ranging from anti-occupation demonstrations to house raising demolitions.
- Establish contacts with local Palestinian and international media
- Help refining the ISM media strategy by developing and incorporating own ideas on information spreading techniques

Application documents

1. Please send in any relevant information about yourself and experience or background you may have in reporting and journalism.
2. Express why you are applying for this voluntary internship and what you hope to gain from it.
3. Send an example of your written work and an optional photo sample of your work.

Applications are accepted year round and should be sent to: palreports@gmail.com

The voice is the movement. Let it be heard.

We wish you the best of luck and hope to see you reporting in Palestine.
